“ Well it has been one week and 3 days and there isnt a min that goes buy that it hits me she really gone and I dont know what to do from day today. I know this I sit and wonder how she did 7 kids buy herself and didnt ask no one for nothing g and no one help her that show me who and what my mother was.and I cant even put it in to words but I will tell you this she had a back bone and she was a very strong person .and I am proud to have been one of her daughter I sometimes would say mother your hiring that last nerves. And she would come back and say I had a life time of you being on my nerves. How I wish I could go back and hear them words again mother.i am waiteing on this wall because I want her to some how hear it and it helps me to feel better I wish that I had to do all over again and to hug her and tell her I love you mom and I pretty much say it yo her everyday my mother was kind and would give you the shirt off her back if you needed bec that is who she was I sometime get so mad that she gone that I sit here mom hoeing that you come to me and tell me it will be are right like you offen did when you was on earth and your never to old that you wasn't needed bec I went to you everyday I could talk to you and you would listen and allway made me feel better now I dont have that you wasnt just my mother you was my best friend no matters what it was even if you thought I was wrong you would point it out to me and say toni you know what you have to do and no matters what it was she would tell me I cou looked do it.now I feel that it all has been taken away from me.i find myself wanting to bug you on that phone mom than I have to think I cant do that no more so if you ever thought for one min mom you wasn't needed you are so wrong and now I do know just how you was there for me and if you see this mom please come to me so.e how and let me know that you're okay I and that I dont have to keep worrying I know you went to heaven bec you was a good mother and a good person in every way a d I do believe in the lord and deep down he took you with him but you know my heart mom you know how it will eat me up in side and till you come to me and I know you will that is why I am putting this here for you to see it and come to me not for other to read and it helps me to k ow I can still take to you.bec I really dont knoe what to do with out you never had to never thought you would go away I know nothing last for ever but in my head I thought I would get up and see you every day of my life.i just wish I could have that hug again to feel the warmth of your hands give me that push I need to get up again till we see each other agin mom I love you and I hope you new that you thought I never needed you wasn't so as I am getting older I needed you more than ever I know this isnt what this is for but this is my way to talk to you bec I know you can see it and you will come to me and your going to do what you always did your going to tell me it is all right love you mom□

“ Paula and Toni,
I'm so sorry to hear about your mom passing. She will live every time you think of her so do it often. She taught you to live and sat the example for you to follow. I know both of you made your mom so proud of your accomplishments in life. She is smiling down on you and telling you everything is okay in her own way. Share your memories and pictures of her with all your loved ones. It's important for you and for her.

I'm praying for you two and all of your loved ones. Hold those you love close for life passes by so quickly and when you need it most, family will be there.

Love you two.

Allan

“ Rochelle was by far the best mother n law any woman could ever ask for. She was definitely the spine and backbone of the family. Her strength was beyond any other I have ever seen. I'm so very proud and blessed to have had her in my life to teach me so many things, guide me in the right direction, let me know my faults and wrongs, but most of all the love her heart sprayed throughout the entire universe. Rest In Peace, Rochelle.

“ As I have sat here the last few days feeling so many things I never ever thought she would leave bec she was my mother so I look at life is thou I was going to have her forever but that frist day she was gone I didnt know what a panic attack was but I jump from my chair and had to run I my front door as I couldnt breath and it hit me I was never going to be able to call her on the phone and go see her and I dont like that feeling but then I ask god please give her that happy life she really did deserve and let her run on them legs again and breath with out that struggle. And that if she was doing them things I would have to give my selfishness reason to keep her here on earth .I do know as I wake up everyday she been gone it seem as iwakeing up a lone.so I send a text to each of my sister letting them know that waking up is the hardest of it all bec your face with the fact she is gone and not comeing back and the tears fall all over again to were it feels like your heart is breaking I know one think if I could take back yesterday she would be sitting in her chair and I would be watering for her to start giveing out them demanding orders that she did so well my mother may of not was rich in money but she was the richest person on earth bec as long as she had us kids she had everything and she didnt want anymore than that I know I rember things that she did as we grow up to show us that we all was so imported to her and she offended said I wonder what will happen to you kids if something g happen to her .bec all she wanted was for all of her kids together under the same roof and to get along with each other be that was all that was going to be left stand she was the fondaens that was keeping us together.so today will be for mom as she looks over us today as she will be looking over us everyday she would want us to stand tell that means afater to day she would want penny roseann Tina me Paula and Bobby not to forget were we came from and she offen would say that we need each other and she was right in so many ways and the love she had for each and everyone of us and that she did each and everyone of us was special to her in all of us she will be well missed in so many ways and as each day that lasted us buy none of us will forget it not counting all the love from her grand kiss who loved her very much I want to take the time to tell tonya and Skylar that your help to us will not go unnoticed no I know you all did what you did out of love for her but in a way that touch my heart.and Tina I would had not wanted to be in your shoes to do what you had to.

“ Toni, Steve and I cared very much for your mother Rochelle. She was a free spirit and had boundless love for her family. Losing your mama changes everything forever, this I know from experience. But she would not want you to stay sad for long. Yes, you will miss her each and every day. But I believe she would want you to live your best and happiest life, in her honor. Rochelle will be sorely missed, but she left a beautiful legacy of love in her family. We are so sorry for the sadness you are feeling now, and hope that your precious memories of her will bring you comfort.

Donna Chandler - March 23 at 10:05 PM

“ Skylar So very sorry to her of your Grandma's passing. Please know she is in the presence of our Saviour Lord Jesus now and doesn't have any pain. Love you and miss you.

Alice Brandkamp - March 22 at 09:52 PM

“ She wasn't my blood relative, but she made me feel like I was. She would give the shirt off her back to a stranger if they needed it. No matter if it left her without. She had the biggest heart and most contagious smile. She always had a hug and a kiss for me! I will definitely miss that. Love you
